

SFQC specialises in the inspection/certification of food production, processing and service. One of our key contracts is with the Scottish Organic Producers Association (SOPA), the leading Organic Certification Body in Scotland.

Organic Certification Officer

He/she will form part of a small team, based in Edinburgh, which is responsible for certifying reports, liaison with farm assessors/advisors and scheduling assessment work.

The successful candidate will have a good practical understanding of agriculture and min. 3 years relevant experience with an interest in Organic farming. He/she will be IT literate, organised, a team player, work professionally and have good communication skills. A degree or equivalent would be preferable. Salary £16,000 – 18,000 pa, 30 days annual leave and company funded pension after 3 months.

For more details on this and other jobs, application forms and contact details please see www.sfqc.co.uk/about_sfqc/vacancies. Closing date Monday 22nd September 2008